"Early in 1918, Mr. Sands sent a Mr. Craner to see me in regard to some machinery, which was to be used in connection with construction of vessels. Mr. Craner told me that the machinery in question was bending rolls, and was to have been ship.

I knew nothing about the construction division, so in the presence of Mr. Cranor I called up Mr. Lester Sisler, who was then secretary of the shipping board, and explained the matter of him. He said he would look into to him. He said he would look into it, and subsequently told me that he found upon inquiry that the rolls had been promised to Mr. Cranor's company and would be shipped to

"A short time after this, Mr. Sands told me that he had made or would make $1,000 in connection with this transaction—though he now states he has no recollection of the matter and that he was going to 'take care of me.' I told him I would accept nothing. He then mentioned the $600 which he still owed me in connection with the changes made in his house, saying that he had not forgotten it and would pay it. I gave no Thought as to what Mr. Sands' relationship was to the principal, but looked upon him as the vice-president of a large bank and a man who was justly in-debted to me. I therefore told him that I would be glad to have him pay what he owed me, but that it could in no way be connected with fees or commissions involving govfees or commissions involving government work—and this he clearly understood. Upon my request he paid me subsequently the $600, as follows: Feb. 18, 1918, $300; June 26, 1818, $200, and Aug. 5, 1918, $100. I have no knowledge of where this money paid me by Mr. Sands came from

Mr. Sands also made me a loan of $300 of May 21, 1918, for which I gave him my note. This was repaid by me to him July 14, 1919, with interest, at which time Mr. Sands said he was unable to find my note. However, I have my canceled check hearing his independent. Market Turns Better on Good Cables and Better Feeling in Spot Department.

Tuesday Afternoon, Nov. 30.

The worm turned in the cotton market today and an upturn of nearly 100 points came before the bear crowd could make much headway in checking it. After that a moderate reaction came, apparently due to to the reduction in the short interest. The effect of the flurry was to stimulate a degree of hope and cheerfulness, but with some encourage-ment to the opinion that the market has done its worst and possibly a period of stability might be wit-

The chief source of improvement was from abroad, where Liverpool was distinctly better than due, Privwas at 15.98c for the option, made in atmosphere seemed clarified and the sharp recovery in Egyptian was basis for hope. The fact also that Amer-ican interests were buying in the foreign market, following the do-mestic markets having shown dispo-sition to do better in the deferred positions, seemed indicative of some underlying changes in the attitude of important people. There was evidence of spot interests with large resources quietly absorbing the actual at interior points, the attractiveness of which measured by the prices of spot and the spot of the spot ness of which measured by the prices of contracts having been evi-dent for some days. Shipment of about 7,000 bales out of the New York stock today, reducing it to about 16,000, was another reason for some concern on the part of shorts, especially significant in view of cer-tain rumors that before December passes there may be some lively happenings.

There were also some advices of operations in the mills resuming operations in the Carolinas, while New York advised Carolinas, while New York advised that reports from the goods markets were slightly more favorable. With such things to help stimulate covering and to discourage offerings the upturn was easy, but it was notable how much easier it is for bullish news to come when large people in the market seem to favor a change in the course of prices.

Apparently the Liverpool market met considerable covering and investment demand as it approached ten pence, for quite an upturn followed. There was better news from the Eventian market where prices the Exyptian market, where prices were reported 300 or more points higher while American interests were higher while American interests were reported as absorbing offerings. The recovery continued until the close and finals for the day were near the top, net gains being from 39 to 70 points, with tone called firm. In the spot department business was small, only 3,000 bales changing hands, prices being marked down 9 points, fully guiddling to 11,56d. Receipts for the day were 36,100 bales, all American. Manchester advised that buyers were operating less freely in cloths, while yarn demand was ly in cloths, while yarn demand was dull and inactive. At the opening March in New York was at 15 cents, which proved low for the day. This level seemed the point about which traders seem to be debating. The crest of the rise the early afternoon, and after that a moderate recession came, 15.52c being recorded a short while before

NEW YORK, Nov. 30—Offerings were lighter and the cotton market showed a steadler tone during today's early frading. Liverpool failed to hold an early advance, but showed a better tone than recently, and the offening here than recently, and the offening here was a personnel of the light team.

Rhere were two December notices which had no apparent effect on the market, and December soon soid up to 15.43c, or 21 points net higher, while March advanced to 15.45c, or 27 points above yesterday's closing. Some Liverpool and Southern selling again appeared, but there was more commission house demand and some buying was also attributed to the trade. No fresh news feature was connected with the advance, but the smaller Southern offerings encouraged buying for a reaction.

The market showed increasing firmness during the late forenoon on continued trade buying, covering and commission house demand. January sold up to 15.75c and May to 15.95c with active months generally showing het advances of 63 to 75 points shortly after midday. Southern selling here gave local traders an impression of subsiding spot pressure in the South and there was probably some buying on reports that North Carolina mills which had been closed down for the past two weeks were about to resume operations.

The carly afternoon advance extended to 15.85c for January and 15.98c for March or 80 too 90 pints above last night's closing. There was increased Southern hedge salling and realizing at this level which caused reactions of 15 or 20 points from the best level but the market held fairly steady around 2 o'clock.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 39—The opening in cotton was lower today, exception July, under private cablegrams from Liverpool stating that the trade there expected a 50 per cent stoppage in Lancashire. On the nearer months prices fell 5 to 20 points under the close of vesterday, but July remained 7 points above. A good demand met the decline on reports that large spot interests were recovered and replaced, at the end of the first half hour of business, by net advances of 8 to 22 points. January traded down to 14.18c and up to 14.52c.

New buying for long account became New buying for long account became savy, being encouraged by reports of n advance of 380 points in Egyptian ofton and by messages from the Carlinas saying that many mills were reuming operations. In the trading up of 1 o'clock the net advance was wid ned to 50 to 73 points, January rising to 15,05c.

The advance continued until it amounted to 70 to 90 points with January up to 15.20c and July to 15.38c. Late in the day prices were 30 to 40 points off from the highest under new selling for short account.

GRAIN MARKETS

More Rural Bank Failures Give Wheat Early Blow, But Some Recovery Later

CHICAGO. Nov. 30.—Rural bank failures put bulls at a disadvantage today in the wheat market. Besides, there was considerable disposition to regard the advance during the last few days as sufficient for the time being. On the other hand cash houses were moderate buyers of the December delivery. Opening prices, which ranged from yesterday's finish to 1½ lower, with December $1.55 to $1.55½ and March $1.52 to $1.55 were followed by brief rallies and then by sethacks all around.

Scarcity of red winter wheat in all markets was a strengthening factor later, together with meagerness of country offerings and cottinued export demand. Notice of the failure of a Seattle grain firm, however, led to renewed weakness after midday. Prices closed unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to 2c lower, with December $1.56 1-4 to $1.56½ and March $1.50 to $1.50½.

Corn sympathized with wheat weakners. After opening 1-4c lower to %c higher, including May at 73 to 73½c, the market hardened a little, but then underwent a general sag.

In the later dealings the market continued to be swayed by wheat. Prices closed heavy ½ to 1½c net lower with May 72% to 72%c.

Oats were easier like other grain, starting ¼ to ½c down, May 49½ to 49 1-4c, and descending a triffe more. Higher quotations on hogs gave firmness to provisions.
